08.20 Induction of employees and volunteers

Policy statement

An induction for all staff, volunteers and managers is provided in order to fully brief them about the pre-school, the families that are served, the policies and procedures, curriculum and daily practice.

Procedures

- A written induction plan for all new staff is provided, which includes the following:
 - introductions to all employees and volunteers, including the management team
 - familiarising with the building, health and safety and fire and evacuation procedures
 - ensuring the policies and procedures are read and adhered to
 - introduction to parents/carers, especially parents/carers of allocated key children where appropriate
 - familiarising them with confidential information in relation to any key children
 - details of the tasks and daily routines to be completed
 - completion of eLearning Safeguarding and Prevent Duty training
 - completion of in-house Induction training
- The initial induction period lasts between one to two months, giving time to incorporate most tasks/routines. A further four months is allocated to incorporate more of the policies and procedures and further training. The manager/deputy/senior room leader induct new staff and volunteers. The trustees induct new managers.
- During the induction period, the individual must demonstrate understanding of and compliance with policies, procedures, tasks and routines.
- Successful completion of the induction forms part of the probationary period.
- Following induction, staff are continued to be supported to deliver high quality performance through regular supervision and appraisal of their work.
